Biography

Described as “a riveting artist” (The Washington Post), American classical guitarist and composer Aaron Larget-Caplan has performed more than 1,000 concerts across Europe, Russia, Asia, and the United States, sharing a repertoire that ranges from Bach and traditional works to John Cage, contemporary composers, and his own creations. His 12 albums has earned over 13 million streams worldwide, and his numerous publications, compositions and arrangements reflect this wide-ranging artistry. A dynamic speaker and performer, Larget-Caplan engages audiences with a Bernsteinesque ease. Raised in Colorado, he now resides in Boston, on the faculty of the New England Conservatory.
