

About ¡Con Fuego!

¡Con Fuego! (with Fire!) fuses classical Spanish music with flamenco dance and song in an exciting program of new and traditional music. Founded and directed by Aaron Larget-Caplan, ¡Con Fuego! performs as a trio of dance/voice, guitar and cello with artists based in Boston and New York.

A flexible group of 2-4 performers, ¡Con Fuego! blends the subtle beauty of classical music with the fiery passion of flamenco for an unforgettable experience. Classical tradition and the raw energy of flamenco come together in music by Isaac Albéniz, Manuel De Falla, Francisco Tárrega, Joaquín Rodrigo, Enrique Granados, and Esteban Sanlúcar.

Quotes

"There are many flamenco and classical music ensembles, but few combine the traditions of Spanish folk music (flamenco) and Spanish classical music. ¡Con Fuego! is a unique gift to the heart and senses."

"Virtuoso guitar, hypnotic dance, silky castanets & splendid costumes come together for a riveting night of Spanish dance & song."

– Flamenco Planet

"Powerfully engaging, expressive...familiar works took on new life and energy"

– CDZ Collegium Musica, Oregon

"Spanish Gems is fire and elegance!"

– Fanfare

"Larget-Caplan's playing came through exuberantly, bringing forth a Hemingway-in-Spain ardor and ambiance to the hall."

– The Armenian Weekly
